The Honourable Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng,
Chairperson and Information Officer:
Judicial Service Commission
188 14th Road, Noordwyk
Midrand 1685

Dear Justice Mogoeng

I enclose a copy of my letter of even date to Deputy Chief Justice Zondo, along with copies of letter to you a year ago and to JSC secretary Chiloane in August.

The matter is monumentally important.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr Jacobs

I enclose a copy of my letter to Deputy Chief Justice Zondo of even date, along with copies of my letters to the Chief Justice a year ago and to JSC Secretary Chiloane in August.

The reason I've copied you in on this correspondence is because it is critical that the Chief Justice sees it. Although I've copied him separately, I need to be sure he gets it.

For the reason stated in the postscript to my letter to Zondo DCJ, I'm now wondering whether the Chief Justice ever received my preceding letter to him a year ago.

The subject of my correspondence is monumentally important.

I've written in similar terms to Ms Memme Sejosengwe, Secretary General: Office of the Chief Justice, and would be grateful if you'd liaise with her and confirm that the Chief Justice has personally received the letter copies that I've enclosed. (His copies mailed him separately are printed normally.)

Yours sincerely

Mr Nathi Mncube
Spokesperson, Office of the Chief Justice
Private Bag X10
Marshalltown 2017

Dear Mr Mncube

I enclose a copy of my letter of even date to Deputy Chief Justice Raymond Zondo, along with copies of my letters to the Chief Justice a year ago and to JSC Secretary Sello Chiloane in August.

The reason I've copied you in on this correspondence is that it's critical that the Chief Justice sees it. Although I've copied him separately, I need to be sure he gets it. (The copies I've mailed him are printed normally.)

For the reason stated in the postscript to my letter to Zondo DCJ, I'm now wondering whether the Chief Justice ever received my preceding letter to him a year ago.

The subject of my correspondence is monumentally important. As you'll see from my letter to Zondo DCJ, both Hlophe JP and Daily Maverick Deputy Editor Marianne Thamm are now onto it.

Please enquire from the Chief Justice and confirm that he's personally received the letter copies that I've enclosed.

I've written in similar terms to Memme Sejosengwe, Secretary General: Office of the Chief Justice, and to Jakes Jacobs, her Chief Director, and would be grateful if you'd liaise with them about this. The Chief Justice will not be amused if he's kept in the dark and is the last to know if and when this thing very publicly blows up.

Yours sincerely
